

Gravenhunger

Manor

- Surrounded by a private forest and river
- 4-storey house
- At least 7 rooms
- Ample of bedrooms
- Close to the seaside and train station

Nestled away in the Gravenhunger village, this house offers some rooms you might want to turn into other rooms, like a cinema or an outdoor pool (for the summer).

The Grounds

As you make your way towards Gravenhunger Manor, there is a gated entrance that welcomes you to the wonderful greenery. If you have visitors, they will enjoy exploring the twisting paths, leading to forgotten secrets.

The Attic

Up in the highest part of the house, you will find a secret room, which overlooks the entire estate. Currently, this room is used for storing old, abandoned furniture, perfect for curious explorers, where you might find lucky objects.

The Inside of the Manor

Inside of the manor, there is space for a lift, if you desire one (to get to the 4th floor, with just 1 click). 4 of the 7 bedrooms come with en-suit bathrooms. There is also a large kitchen and a hard wooden staircase at the centre of the hallway.

With Gravenhunger village right on your doorstep, the seaside town has lots of things you can do. I cannot wait to show you around.
