Dear Tower Hill Children,

Despite the rain, this has been a brilliant week at school because we have been able to see lots more of you coming back to see your teachers! The teachers have absolutely loved spending that time with you and are looking forward to seeing you again next week. If you didn't get a chance to see the new outdoor classroom then you will next week. Today your grown ups are getting a letter to tell them who your next class teacher is! You will then be able to come and meet them for a session before we break up for the summer holidays. Next week you will also get your big books and reports to take home!

If, like me, you love to read a good book see below for the Summer Reading Challenge! How many books can you read before coming back to school in September?
