

VE Day 75 puzzles, fun and games online

From Thursday 7 - Monday 11 May, families can access a huge range of exciting VE Day themed games, puzzles and activities through our special website, created by the Viking School Visits team specially for Rushmoor Borough Council.

Visit the Rushmoor Borough Council website to find out more:

www.rushmoor.gov.uk/veday.

Take part in VE Day 75 at home celebrations

The Council's website has a wealth of stay-at-home celebration packs, online activities and ideas for you to take part in the 75th anniversary of VE

Day. <https://www.rushmoor.gov.uk/article/12011/Get-involved-and-celebrate-VE-Day-75-at-home>

Fun and learning with the BBC

Watch Horrible Histories on the Homefront

This episode of Horrible Histories on BBC iPlayer looks at how the war affected those left back home in the UK, on the home front.

www.bbc.co.uk/iplayer/episode/m0008k6r/horrible-histories-series-8-9-heroic-home-front.

BBC Learning's Second World War resources

Using archive video and images from the Imperial War Museum, as well as first-person testimony from veterans and eye-witnesses, this BBC series of short films on the Second World War offers a comprehensive overview of the war for primary school age children.

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/teach/class-clips-video/history-ks2-world-war-two/zjnyscw>

More learning and teaching resources

Learn with the Royal British Legion's VE Day 75 resources for home learning

The Royal British Legion has created VE Day learning resources for parents and carers, specially designed for home learning. They are aimed at seven to 14 year olds and include family-friendly activities and support for you when talking to your child/children about VE Day and remembrance. <https://www.britishlegion.org.uk/get-involved/remembrance/teaching-remembrance>